

Listing Application - For Companies Seeking to List a New Class of Equity or Debt Securities

Record Id:

REQUIREMENT TO FILE THE LISTING OF ADDITIONAL SHARES NOTIFICATION FORM

"Please note that in addition to this application, the company may be required to file the Listing of Additional Shares (LAS) notification form. The LAS form is used to notify Nasdaq about certain events involving the issuance, or potential issuance, of common stock, securities convertible into common stock, or other voting securities. LAS forms are required to be filed with Nasdaq no later than fifteen calendar days prior to certain events, including issuing any common stock, or any security convertible into common stock in a transaction that may result in the potential issuance of common stock, greater than 10% of either the total shares outstanding or the voting power outstanding on a pre-transaction basis. Please review Listing Rule 5250\(e\)\(2\) to determine whether the company is required to file the LAS form."

REGULATORY PROCEEDINGS/LITIGATION

1. Has the company or any of its predecessors previously applied to have its securities listed or quoted on any marketplace? If so, please provide the name of the marketplace, and the date and outcome of the application. In addition, state whether the company's securities have ever been delisted; the date and reasons for any delisting; whether the issuer is (was) the subject of any inquiries or investigations by a securities exchange; and the outcome or resolution of such inquiries or investigations. Please note that the issuer's obligation to respond to this question is ongoing and the issuer must promptly advise Nasdaq of receipt of any relevant inquiry.

The fact that an applicant may meet Nasdaq's numerical guidelines does not necessarily mean that its application will be approved. In connection with the review of any application, and as set forth in the Nasdaq Listing Rules, Nasdaq reserves the right to request additional information or documentation, public or non-public, deemed necessary to make a determination regarding a security's qualification for initial inclusion, including, but not limited to, any material provided to or received from the Securities and Exchange Commission or other regulatory authority.

ATTACH SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS AND FEE PAYMENT INFORMATION

In addition to a completed Listing Application, prior to approval, Nasdaq will require additional information and supporting documentation. Documentation will vary depending on the type of application you are submitting. Please review our Supporting Documentation Guidelines. These guidelines, presented by application type, list the specific documents Nasdaq will require prior to approval for your specific application type. Required documentation must be provided prior to approval, but is not required at the time of original submission.

If the company has submitted a confidential draft registration statement to the SEC in connection with its proposed initial public offering, please attach the most recent copy of this draft registration statement and all related SEC correspondence.

To facilitate the review process, please submit supporting documentation electronically. You can submit additional documentation for your form at any time during the application review process.

Uploading documents for submission is easy:

Select documents using the "Browse" button. To attach multiple documents, hold CTRL key while making the selection. Documents should be provided using one of the following formats: MS Word, MS Excel or PDF.
