

Investment Management Entity and Portfolio Company Certification

Nasdaq will apply a 50% fee discount to the annual fee for Eligible Portfolio Companies and Investment Management Entities that have one or more Eligible Portfolio Companies listed on Nasdaq.

As described in Nasdaq Listing Rule IM-5910\(b\) and IM-5920\(b\) to qualify for this discount, an “Investment Management Entity” is a company listed on Nasdaq or another national securities exchange that manages private investment vehicles not registered under the Investment Company Act. An “Eligible Portfolio Company” of an Investment Management Entity is a Nasdaq-listed Company in which an Investment Management Entity has owned at least 20% of the common stock on a continuous basis since prior to that company’s initial listing.

Qualified companies must email this completed form to continuedlisting@nasdaq.com no later than December 31, 2023 in order to receive the annual fee discount for 2024.
