

Nasdaq and theBoardlist

Advancing Board Service

theBoardlist is an online talent platform that connects both public and private companies with diverse candidates for global leadership opportunities. As a leader in corporate diversity, theBoardlist has successfully helped over 2,000 companies source exceptional talent. theBoardlist has over 10,000 diverse candidates, from accomplished and well-known board directors to emerging board-ready talent.

Candidates are recommended by for-profit board directors and CEOs, or sourced through esteemed partner organizations, and vetted by theBoardlist Talent Partners, making it a leading curated premium talent community of 22,000 members & growing.

theBoardlist offers robust search and matching capabilities to power talent discovery as well as candidate list management, and facilitated introductions between companies & candidates.

VISION

Bring transparency and access to the pipeline of exceptional diverse talent so that companies can build their highest performing teams.

RESOURCES & VALUE

theBoardlist and Nasdaq are committed to enriching the supply of diverse, qualified board candidates by driving recommendations and increasing the overall discoverability of candidates.

- It's free to join theBoardlist as a candidate, recommender & searcher
- Nasdaq's partners & clients will receive expedited search intake & support on theBoardlist
- Every search receives a complimentary list of 3-5 candidate suggestions and relevant introductions
- Nasdaq's Listings & Corporate Platform Clients receive a 20% discount on access to unlimited searches, premium candidate information & search services

Please contact us at DL-NasdaqBoardDiversity@nasdaq.com to learn more.

Learn more at theboardlist.com