Partial Amendment

If the self-regulatory organization is amending only part of the text of a lengthy proposed rule change, it may, with the Commission's permission, file only those portions of the text of the proposed rule change in which changes are being made if the filing (i.e. partial amendment) is clearly understandable on its face. Such partial amendment shall be clearly identified and marked to show deletions and additions.

1. Text of the Proposed Rule Change

(a) The International Securities Exchange, LLC (the “Exchange” or the “ISE”) proposes to amend its rules to extend the pilot program that eliminated position and exercise limits for physically-settled options on the SPDR S&P ETF Trust (“SPY”) (“SPY Pilot Program”). The text of the proposed rule change is attached as Exhibit 5.

(b) Not applicable.

(c) Not applicable.

2. Procedures of the Self-Regulatory Organization

The Exchange staff approved this proposed rule change pursuant to authority delegated to it by the Exchange’s Board of Directors on September 15, 2005. This action constitutes the requisite approval under the Exchange’s Certificate of Formation, Operating Agreement and Constitution.

3. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change.

(a) Purpose – The Exchange proposes to amend Supplementary Material .01 to Rule 412 and Supplementary Material .01 to Rule 414 to extend the duration of the SPY Pilot Program through July 12, 2016. This filing does not propose any substantive changes to the SPY Pilot Program. In proposing to extend the SPY Pilot Program, the Exchange reaffirms its consideration of several factors that supported the original proposal of the SPY Pilot Program, including (1) the liquidity of the option and the underlying security, (2) the market capitalization of the underlying security and the related index, (3) the reporting of large positions and requirements surrounding margin, and (4) financial requirements imposed by ISE and the Commission.

With this proposed extension to the SPY Pilot Program, the Exchange has submitted a report to the Commission reflecting the trading of standardized SPY options without position limits from January through May 2015. The report was prepared in the manner specified in the filing extending the SPY Pilot Program to the current pilot end date of July 12, 2015. The Exchange notes that it is unaware of any problems created by the SPY Pilot Program and does not foresee any as a result of the proposed extension. The proposed extension will allow the Exchange and the Commission to further evaluate the SPY Pilot Program and the effect it has on the market.

The Exchange represents that, should the Exchange propose to extend the pilot program, adopt on a permanent basis the pilot program or terminate the pilot program, it will submit a new pilot report at least thirty (30) days before the end of the extended SPY Pilot Program, which will cover the extended pilot period. The Pilot Report will detail the size and different types of strategies employed with respect to positions established as a result of the elimination of position limits in SPY. In addition, the Pilot Report will note whether any problems resulted due to the no limit approach and any other information that may be useful in evaluating the effectiveness of the SPY Pilot Program. The Pilot Report will compare the impact of the SPY Pilot Program, if any, on the volumes of SPY options and the volatility in the price of the underlying SPY shares, particularly at expiration. In preparing the report the Exchange will utilize various data elements such as volume and open interest. In addition the Exchange will make available to Commission staff data elements relating to the effectiveness of the SPY Pilot Program.

Conditional on the findings in the Pilot Report, the Exchange will file with the Commission a proposal to extend the pilot program, adopt the pilot program on a permanent basis or terminate the pilot. If the SPY Pilot Program is not extended or adopted on a permanent basis by the expiration of the extended pilot, the position limits for SPY would revert to limits that were in effect prior to the commencement of the SPY Pilot Program.

(b) Statutory Basis – The Exchange believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder that are applicable to a national securities exchange, and, in particular, with the requirements of Section 6(b) of the Act.¹ In particular, the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act,² because it is designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanisms of a free and open market and a national market system and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.

The Exchange believes that extending the SPY Pilot Program promotes just and equitable principles of trade by permitting market participants, including market makers, institutional investors and retail investors, to establish greater positions when pursuing their investment goals and needs. The Exchange also believes that economically equivalent products should be treated in an equivalent manner so as to avoid regulatory arbitrage, especially with respect to position limits. Treating SPY and SPX options differently by virtue of imposing different position limits is inconsistent with the notion of promoting just and equitable principles of trade and removing impediments to perfect the mechanisms of a free and open market. At the same time, the Exchange believes that the elimination of position limits for SPY options would not increase market volatility or facilitate the ability to manipulate the market.

4. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange believes the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)(8) of the Act³ in that it does not impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The proposed rule change is not designed to address any aspect of competition, whether between the Exchange and its competitors, or among market participants. Instead the proposed rule change is designed to allow the ² 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(5).

³ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(8).

SPY Pilot Program to continue as all other self-regulatory organizations currently participating in the SPY Pilot Program are expected to extend it for an additional year.

5. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants or Others

The Exchange has not solicited, and does not intend to solicit, comments on this proposed rule change. The Exchange has not received any written comments from members or other interested parties.

6. Extension of Time Period for Commission Action

Not applicable.

7. Basis for Summary Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(3) or for Accelerated Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act,⁴ and Rule 19b-4(f)(6)⁵ thereunder, the Exchange has designated this proposal as one that effects a change that: (i) does not significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) does not impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) by its terms, does not become operative for 30 days after the date of the filing, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate if consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest.

The Exchange believes that the proposed rule change will not impose any significant burden on competition, or significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest, and therefore qualifies as “non-controversial” under Rule 19b-4(f)(6). For instance, the proposed rule change does not offer any substantive changes to the SPY Pilot Program. Instead, the rule change allows the SPY Pilot Program to continue as is and other exchanges are expected to file to extend it as well. As such, the Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change raises any new regulatory issues not already considered by the Commission.

A proposed rule change filed under Rule 19b-4(f)(6) normally does not become operative prior to 30 days after the date of filing. Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii), however, permits the Commission to designate a shorter time if such action is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The Exchange respectfully requests that the Commission waive the 30 day operative delay period. Waiver of the operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest because it will allow the SPY Pilot Program to continue uninterrupted.

Furthermore, Rule 19b-4(f)(6) requires a self-regulatory organization to give the Commission written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. The Exchange has satisfied this requirement.

⁴ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A).

⁵ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6).

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is: (i) necessary or appropriate in the public interest; (ii) for the protection of investors; or (iii) otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Self-Regulatory Organizations; International Securities Exchange, LLC; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change to Extend the SPY Pilot Program

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act"),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on July 6, 2015 the International Securities Exchange, LLC (the "Exchange" or the "ISE") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission the proposed rule change, as described in Items I, II, and III below, which items have been prepared by the self-regulatory organization. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The ISE proposes to amend its rules to extend the pilot program that eliminated position and exercise limits for physically-settled options on the SPDR S&P ETF Trust ("SPY") ("SPY Pilot Program"). The text of the proposed rule change is available on the Exchange's Web site (<http://www.ise.com>), at the principal office of the Exchange, and at the Commission's Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the self-regulatory organization included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The self-regulatory organization has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange proposes to amend Supplementary Material .01 to Rule 412 and Supplementary Material .01 to Rule 414 to extend the duration of the SPY Pilot Program through July 12, 2016. This filing does not propose any substantive changes to the SPY Pilot Program. In proposing to extend the SPY Pilot Program, the Exchange reaffirms its consideration of several factors that supported the original proposal of the SPY Pilot Program, including (1) the liquidity of the option and the underlying security, (2) the market capitalization of the underlying security and the related index, (3) the reporting of large positions and requirements surrounding margin, and (4) financial requirements imposed by ISE and the Commission.

With this proposed extension to the SPY Pilot Program, the Exchange has submitted a report to the Commission reflecting the trading of standardized SPY options without position limits from January through May 2015. The report was prepared in the manner specified in the filing extending the SPY Pilot Program to the current pilot end date of July 12, 2015. The Exchange notes that it is unaware of any problems created by the SPY Pilot Program and does not foresee any as a result of the proposed extension. The proposed extension will allow the Exchange and the Commission to further evaluate the SPY Pilot Program and the effect it has on the market.

The Exchange represents that, should the Exchange propose to extend the pilot program, adopt on a permanent basis the pilot program or terminate the pilot program, it will submit a new pilot report at least thirty (30) days before the end of the extended SPY Pilot Program, which will cover the extended pilot period. The Pilot Report will detail the size and different types of strategies employed with respect to positions established as a result of the elimination of position limits in SPY. In addition, the Pilot Report will note whether any problems resulted due to the no limit approach and any other information that may be useful in evaluating the effectiveness of the SPY Pilot Program. The Pilot Report will compare the impact of the SPY Pilot Program, if any, on the volumes of SPY options and the volatility in the price of the underlying SPY shares, particularly at expiration. In preparing the report the Exchange will utilize various data elements such as volume and open interest. In addition the Exchange will make available to Commission staff data elements relating to the effectiveness of the SPY Pilot Program.

Conditional on the findings in the Pilot Report, the Exchange will file with the Commission a proposal to extend the pilot program, adopt the pilot program on a permanent basis or terminate the pilot. If the SPY Pilot Program is not extended or adopted on a permanent basis by the expiration of the extended pilot, the position limits for SPY would revert to limits that were in effect prior to the commencement of the SPY Pilot Program.

2. Basis

The Exchange believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder that are applicable to a national securities exchange, and, in particular, with the requirements of Section 6(b) of the Act.³ In particular, the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act,⁴ because it is designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanisms of a free and open market and a national market system and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.

The Exchange believes that extending the SPY Pilot Program promotes just and equitable principles of trade by permitting market participants, including market makers, institutional investors and retail investors, to establish greater positions when pursuing their investment goals and needs. The Exchange also believes that economically equivalent products should be treated in an equivalent manner so as to avoid regulatory arbitrage, especially with respect to position limits. Treating SPY and SPX options differently by virtue of imposing different position limits is inconsistent with the notion of promoting just and equitable principles of trade and removing impediments to perfect the mechanisms of a free and open market. At the same time, the Exchange believes that the elimination of position limits for SPY options would not increase market volatility or facilitate the ability to manipulate the market.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's
Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange believes the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)(8) of the Act⁵ in that it does not impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The proposed rule change is not designed to address any aspect of competition, whether between the Exchange and its competitors, or among market participants. Instead the proposed rule change is designed to allow the ⁴ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(5).

⁵ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(8).

SPY Pilot Program to continue as all other self-regulatory organizations currently participating in the SPY Pilot Program are expected to extend it for an additional year.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants or Others

The Exchange has not solicited, and does not intend to solicit, comments on this proposed rule change. The Exchange has not received any unsolicited written comments from members or other interested parties.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The Exchange believes that the foregoing proposed rule change may take effect upon filing with the Commission pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)⁶ of the Act and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder⁷ because the foregoing proposed rule change does not (i) significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest, (ii) impose any significant burden on competition, and (iii) become operative for 30 days after its filing date, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is: (i) necessary or appropriate in the public interest; (ii) for the protection of investors; or (iii) otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.

⁷ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6).

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic comments:

- Use the Commission's Internet comment form <http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or
- Send an E-mail to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include File No. SR-ISE-2015-22 on the subject line.

Paper comments:

- Send paper comments in triplicate to Elizabeth Murphy, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549-1090.

All submissions should refer to File Number SR-ISE-2015-22. This file number should be included on the subject line if e-mail is used. To help the Commission process and review your comments more efficiently, please use only one method. The Commission will post all comments on the Commission's Internet Web site (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>). Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for Web site viewing and printing in the Commission's Public Reference Room. Copies of such filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the ISE. All comments received will be posted without change; the Commission does not edit personal identifying information from submissions. You should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly. All submissions should refer to File Number SR-ISE-2015-22 and should be submitted by [insert date 21 days from the date of publication in the Federal Register].

Exhibit 3

Report in Support of Extending the SPY Pilot Program

The SPDR S&P ETF Trust (“SPY”) remains the most recognizable and actively traded Exchange Traded Fund (“ETF”). During the period of January 2015 through May 2015 (“Pilot Period 2”) the Net Asset Value of SPY slipped to $182B compared to $200B last identified in the original pilot period from January 2014 through December 2014 (“Pilot Period 1”). Even with the drop in value, SPY remains the largest ETF by size and continues to dominate trading with more than 103M shares exchanged daily.¹ The International Securities Exchange, LLC and ISE Gemini, LLC have eliminated position and exercise limits for physically-settled options on SPY pursuant to a pilot set to end on July 12, 2015 (the “SPY Pilot Program”). The Exchanges are submitting this Pilot Report to provide the Commission with data and written analysis related to the elimination of SPY position limits.

A. Option Trading Volume, Position Limits, and Open Interest for SPY

1. Trading Volume

Much like the underlying, SPY continues to be the most actively traded multi-listed option product in the industry. It again accounted for more than 14% (14.55%) of the option market volume during Pilot Period 2, up slightly from 14.3% in Pilot Period 1. The volume breakdown is available in Table A below. Similar results were found when analyzing the average and median volumes in SPY.

Industry Option Volume Totals in SPY – Table A

Measurement	Pilot Period 1	Pilot Period 2 ²	Pct. Difference
Total	600,545,085	236,346,637	N/A
ADV	2,403,299	2,316,371	-3.62%
Median	2,300,534	2,167,300	-5.79%
Max	3,941,836	2,840,847	-27.93%
Min	1,992,865	1,997,983	0.26%

² Only five months of data is reviewed in Pilot Period 2. A review of the first five months in Pilot Period 1 resulted in a similar number of shares traded with a total of 238,148,349.

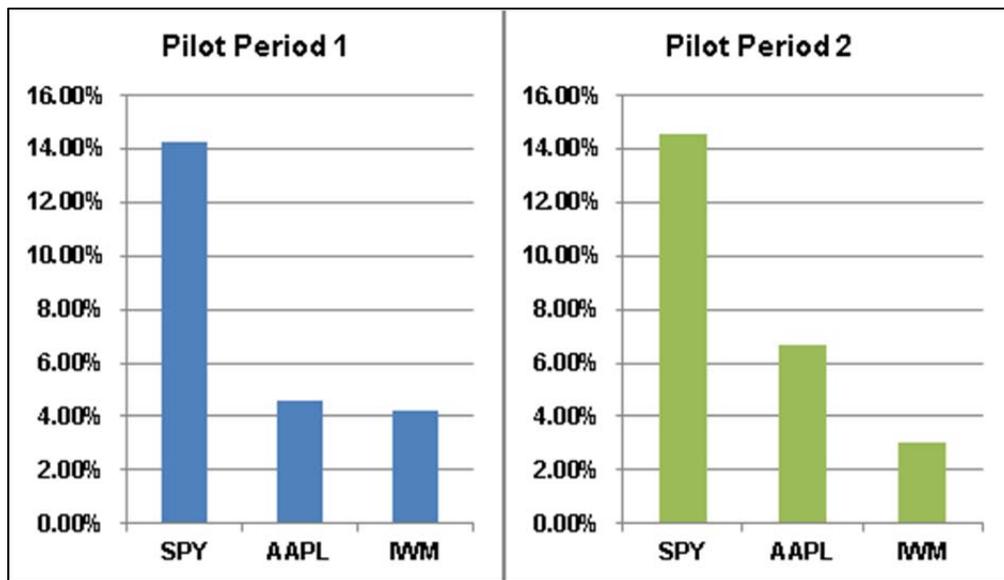

The exchanges also assessed SPY volumes specifically on expiration over the periods of review when volumes are higher as shown in Table B. Between the two Pilot Periods the ADV numbers were nearly identical with only a 1.8% increase in Period 2.²

Industry Option Volume Totals in SPY at Expiration – Table B

Measurement	Pilot Period 1	Pilot Period 2	Pct. Difference
ADV	3,253,304	3,311,384	1.79%
Median	2,865,918	3,648,855	27.32%
Max	5,290,920	3,797,478	-28.23%
Min	2,302,806	2,012,261	-12.62%

Having no position limits didn't diminish nor increase SPY's popularity. Its volume continues to outpace the next most active multi-listed option products AAPL and IWM by more than double as identified in Chart A.

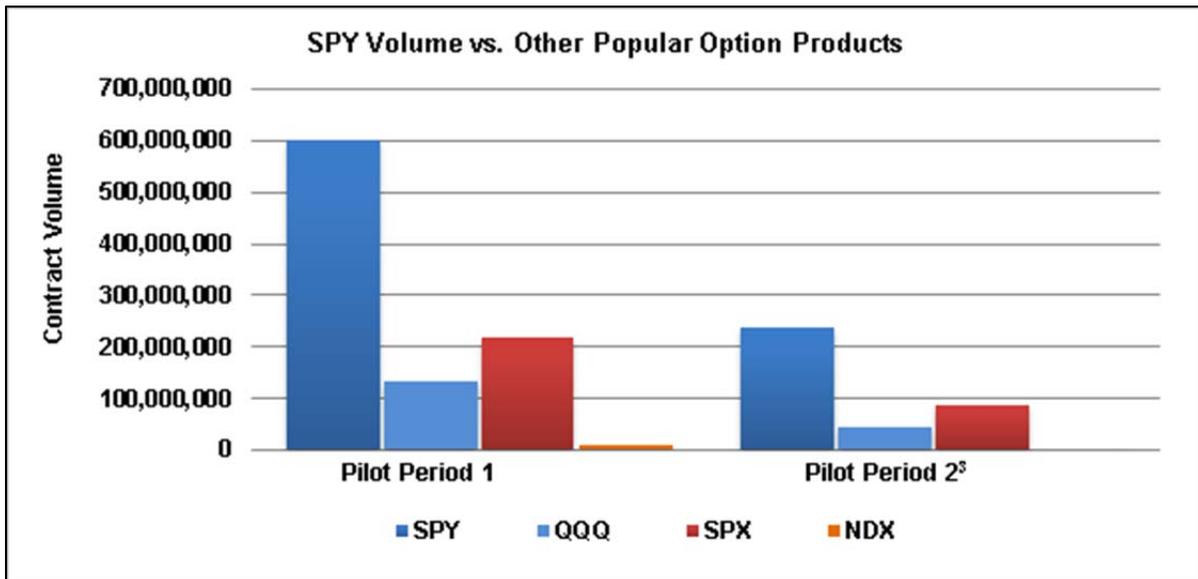

SPY Option Volumes As Compared to the Next Most Active Multi-listed Products – Chart A

² The relatively large difference between the Min and Max totals for Pilot Period 1 and Pilot Period 2 may be due to the shorter length of Pilot Period 2, which only covers a span of five months, and does not include certain traditionally high and low volume months.

In Chart B the exchanges reviewed SPY versus other popular option products with and without position limits. Again it is clear that SPY trades far more than either the PowerShares QQQ Trust, Series 1 (“QQQ”) which currently has a position limit of 900,000 contracts or two popular indexes that do not have position limits, the S&P 500 Index (“SPX”), and Nasdaq 100 Index (“NDX”). Eliminating position limits hasn’t changed trading in SPY and continues to not factor into any volume changes in the other popular products, including products that haven’t had limits for some time now.

SPY Versus Other Popular Option Products with High or No Position Limits – Chart B

³ SPY option volume during Pilot Period 2 reflects five months of data.

2. Open Interest

Open interest in SPY options between Pilot Period 1 and Pilot Period 2 was nearly identical, with less than a 2% difference.³ The consistency shown between the periods emphasizes position limits have had no effect on the trading of SPY.

Open Interest⁴ in SPY Options on Expiration – Table C

Measurement	Pilot Period 1	Pilot Period 2	Pct. Difference
ADV	20,826,145	20,427,837	-1.91%
Median	20,240,451	20,679,975	2.17%
Max	26,716,338	20,821,663	-22.06%
Min	17,388,435	19,857,407	14.20%

3. Underlying Price Volatility

Volatility in the underlying stock price of SPY was higher between in Pilot Period 2 but the difference is relatively small and likely points to more short-term market events rather than the elimination of position limits.

Price Volatility of SPY Underlying Stock⁵ – Table C

Pilot Period 1	Pilot Period 2	Pct. Difference
0.7002	0.8078	15.36%

B. Trading Behavior and Exchange Issues

There were no noticeable changes to member trading with relation to size or strategy following the extension of the SPY Pilot Program. Also no problems were observed nor reported during the Pilot Period 2.

³ Similar to the difference in Min and Max SPY volume totals, the difference in Min and Max open interest is potentially due to the smaller sample size of Pilot Period 2, which does not include a full year of data.

⁴ Open Interest was measured on expiration Friday for each month (unless a holiday fell on that day in which case the prior day's data was used) and then averaged over each respective year for the Pre-Pilot and Pilot Periods.

⁵ Volatility was measured by taking closing price changes in SPY between monthly expiration periods (approximately four weeks) then averaged for the year. Formula used: Standard Deviation X (Price Change for a Frequency).

C. Conclusion

As identified in the data provided for Pilot Period 2, there continues to be no undesirable consequences associated with the SPY Pilot Program. Option volume and open interest in SPY remains consistent over the two Pilot Periods. In addition, there was no significant increase in volatility in the SPY underlying stock price. The Exchanges thus believe that a continuation of the SPY Pilot Program is warranted at this time and a one year extension be applied.
