of investors and the public interest. The Exchange has asked the Commission to waive the 30-day operative delay so that the proposal may become operative immediately upon filing. The Commission believes that waiving the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The proposal would explicitly state that RLPs could submit RPIs in non-assigned securities, which should allow retail orders additional opportunities to receive price improvement. Therefore, the Commission designates the proposed rule change as operative upon filing.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of such proposed rule change, the Commission may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings under Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Act to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

10 In addition, Rule 19b–4(f)(6)(iii) requires the Exchange to give the Commission written notice of the Exchange’s intent to file the proposed rule change, along with a brief description and text of the proposed rule change, at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. The Exchange has satisfied this requirement.

11 For purposes only of waiving the operative delay for this proposal, the Commission has considered the proposed rule’s impact on efficiency, competition, and capital formation. See 15 U.S.C. 78c(f).

either approve the accommodation proposal, disapprove the accommodation proposal, or institute proceedings to determine whether to approve or disapprove the accommodation proposal, to October 30, 2012. 6 On October 26, 2012, the Commission instituted proceedings to determine whether to approve or disapprove the accommodation proposal.7 The Commission subsequently received six additional comment letters on the accommodation proposal 8 and a second response letter from Nasdaq.9 Section 19(b)(2) of the Act 10 provides that, after initiating disapproval proceedings, the Commission shall issue an order approving or disapproving the proposed rule change not later than 180 days after the date of publication of notice of filing of the proposed rule change.11 The Commission may extend that, after initiating disapproval proceedings, the Commission shall issue an order approving or disapproving the proposed rule change, however, by not more than 60 days if the Commission determines that a longer period is appropriate and publishes the reasons for such determination.12 The proposed rule change was published for notice and comment in the Federal Register on August 1, 2012. January 28, 2013, is 180 days from that date, and March 29, 2013, is 240 days from that date. The Commission finds it appropriate to designate a longer period within which to issue an order approving or disapproving the proposed rule change so that it has sufficient time to consider the accommodation proposal, the issues raised in the comment letters that have been submitted in response to the accommodation proposal, including comment letters submitted in response to the Order Instituting Proceedings, and the Exchange’s responses to such comments.

Accordingly, the Commission, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,13 designates March 29, 2013 as the date by which the Commission shall either approve or disapprove the proposed rule change (File No. SR-NASDAQ-2012–090).

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.14

Deputy Secretary.
