2. Procedures of the Self-Regulatory Organization

The proposed rule change was approved by senior management of the Exchange pursuant to authority delegated by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) on July 1, 2015. Exchange staff will advise the Board of any action taken pursuant to delegated authority. No other action is necessary for the filing of the rule change.

3. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

a. Purpose

The purpose of the proposed rule change is to clarify and conform the amount of annual fees charged to a single Closed-End Fund and a fund family.

In 2005, Nasdaq adopted a fee schedule applicable specifically to Closed-End Funds and permitted a fund sponsor to aggregate the shares outstanding of all Closed-End Funds listed on Nasdaq that are part of the fund family.³ The maximum annual fee payable by a fund family was set to $75,000, equal to the maximum annual fee payable by a single Closed-End Fund.

In 2014, Nasdaq adopted a new All-Inclusive Annual Listing Fee schedule and increased the maximum annual fee payable by a single Closed-End Fund.⁴ At that time, ³ Securities Exchange Act Release No. 52277 (August 17, 2005), 70 FR 49347 (August 22, 2005) (approving SR-NASD-2005-96).

⁴ Securities Exchange Act Release No. 73647 (November 19, 2014), 79 FR 70232 (November 25, 2014) (approving SR-NASDAQ-2014-87).

Nasdaq inadvertently created a disparity between the maximum annual fees payable by a single Closed-End Fund and by a fund family. While Nasdaq increased the maximum annual fee payable by a single Closed-End Fund from $75,000 to $80,000 and introduced a new All-Inclusive Annual Listing Fee schedule with the maximum annual fee payable by a single Closed-End Fund equal to $100,000,⁵ the maximum annual fee payable by a fund family under the standard annual fee was not changed and remained at $75,000. In addition, rules specifically allowing for the aggregation of shares in a fund family were not included in the new All-Inclusive Annual Fee.

Nasdaq proposes to amend Listing Rules 5910(d)(4) and 5920(c)(7) to increase the maximum annual fee payable by a fund family to $80,000 to conform such fee to the maximum annual fee payable by a single Closed End Fund. The creation of this disparity between the fees was inadvertent and Nasdaq believes that it is reasonable for a fund family to be subject to the same maximum fee schedule than a single Closed-End Fund.

In addition, Nasdaq proposes to amend Listing Rules IM-5910-1 and IM-5920-1 to clarify that a fund family subject to the All-Inclusive Annual Fee can aggregate shares in the same manner as a fund family subject to Nasdaq's standard annual fee. Nasdaq also proposes to clarify that the All-Inclusive Annual Listing Fee is calculated on total shares outstanding.

b. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act,⁶ in general, and furthers the objectives of Sections 6(b)(4) and 6(b)(5) of the Act,⁷ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among members and issuers and other persons using any facility or system which the Exchange operates or controls, and is not designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers.

⁵ Id.

As a preliminary matter, Nasdaq competes for listings with other national securities exchanges and companies can easily choose to list on, or transfer to, those alternative venues. As a result, the fees Nasdaq can charge listed companies are constrained by the fees charged by its competitors and Nasdaq cannot charge prices in a manner that would be unreasonable, inequitable, or unfairly discriminatory.

Nasdaq believes that the proposed increase in the annual maximum fee payable by a fund family is reasonable and not unfairly discriminatory because such fee is not greater than the fee payable by a single Closed-End Fund that could be a part of the same fund family. The parity in such fees had previously been approved by the Commission.⁸ The proposed rule change makes no adjustments to the fee schedule applicable to the Closed-End Funds.

Nasdaq also believes that the proposed additional interpretive material merely clarifies, without changing the substance of the rules, Nasdaq's current position that a fund family subject to the All-Inclusive Annual Listing Fee schedule is subject to the same fee schedule as a single Closed-End Fund. These companies are particularly sensitive to the expenses they incur, given that they compete for investment dollars based on return. In addition, Closed-End Funds need to issue shares as a primary means to expand their businesses and raise additional money to invest. As such, Nasdaq believes that allowing a fund family to aggregate the shares outstanding of all Closed-End Funds listed on Nasdaq that are part of the fund family is reasonable and not inequitable or unfairly discriminatory.

⁷ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(4) and (5).

⁸ See footnote 3, supra.

Finally, Nasdaq believes that the proposed fees are consistent with the investor protection objectives of Section 6(b)(5) of the Act⁹ in that they are designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to a free and open market and national market system, and in general to protect investors and the public interest. Specifically, the fees are designed, in part, to ensure that there are adequate resources for Nasdaq's listing compliance program, which helps to assure that listing standards are properly enforced and investors are protected.

4. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended. The market for listing services is extremely competitive and listed companies may freely choose alternative venues based on the aggregate fees assessed, and the value provided by each listing. This rule proposal does not burden competition with other listing venues, which are similarly free to set their fees. Moreover, the proposed rule merely conforms fees charged to similarly situated Nasdaq listed Closed-End Funds and fund families. For these reasons, Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition for listings.

5. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

6. Extension of Time Period for Commission Action

Nasdaq does not consent at this time to an extension of the time period for Commission action specified in Section 19(b)(2) of the Act.

7. Basis for Summary Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(3) or for Accelerated Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act,¹⁰ the Exchange has designated this proposal as establishing or changing a due, fee, or other charge imposed by the self-regulatory organization on any person, whether or not the person is a member of the self-regulatory organization, which renders the proposed rule change effective upon filing.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The purpose of the proposed rule change is to clarify and conform the amount of annual fees charged to a single Closed-End Fund and a fund family.

In 2005, Nasdaq adopted a fee schedule applicable specifically to Closed-End Funds and permitted a fund sponsor to aggregate the shares outstanding of all Closed-End Funds listed on Nasdaq that are part of the fund family.³ The maximum annual fee payable by a fund family was set to $75,000, equal to the maximum annual fee payable by a single Closed-End Fund.

In 2014, Nasdaq adopted a new All-Inclusive Annual Listing Fee schedule and increased the maximum annual fee payable by a single Closed-End Fund.⁴ At that time, Nasdaq inadvertently created a disparity between the maximum annual fees payable by a single Closed-End Fund and by a fund family. While Nasdaq increased the maximum annual fee payable by a single Closed-End Fund from $75,000 to $80,000 and introduced a new All-Inclusive Annual Listing Fee schedule with the maximum annual fee payable by a single Closed-End Fund equal to $100,000,⁵ the maximum annual fee payable by a fund family under the standard annual fee was not changed and remained at $75,000. In addition, rules specifically allowing for the aggregation of shares in a fund family were not included in the new All-Inclusive Annual Fee.

Nasdaq proposes to amend Listing Rules 5910(d)(4) and 5920(c)(7) to increase the maximum annual fee payable by a fund family to $80,000 to conform such fee to the maximum annual fee payable by a single Closed End Fund. The creation of this disparity between the fees was inadvertent and Nasdaq believes that it is reasonable for a fund family to be subject to the same maximum fee schedule than a single Closed-End Fund.

In addition, Nasdaq proposes to amend Listing Rules IM-5910-1 and IM-5920-1 to clarify that a fund family subject to the All-Inclusive Annual Fee can aggregate shares in the same manner as a fund family subject to Nasdaq's standard annual fee. Nasdaq also proposes to clarify that the All-Inclusive Annual Listing Fee is calculated on total shares outstanding.

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act,⁶ in general, and furthers the objectives of Sections 6(b)(4) and 6(b)(5) of the Act,⁷ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and

other charges among members and issuers and other persons using any facility or system which the Exchange operates or controls, and is not designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers.

As a preliminary matter, Nasdaq competes for listings with other national securities exchanges and companies can easily choose to list on, or transfer to, those alternative venues. As a result, the fees Nasdaq can charge listed companies are constrained by the fees charged by its competitors and Nasdaq cannot charge prices in a manner that would be unreasonable, inequitable, or unfairly discriminatory.

Nasdaq believes that the proposed increase in the annual maximum fee payable by a fund family is reasonable and not unfairly discriminatory because such fee is not greater than the fee payable by a single Closed-End Fund that could be a part of the same fund family. The parity in such fees had previously been approved by the Commission.⁸ The proposed rule change makes no adjustments to the fee schedule applicable to the Closed-End Funds.

Nasdaq also believes that the proposed additional interpretive material merely clarifies, without changing the substance of the rules, Nasdaq's current position that a fund family subject to the All-Inclusive Annual Listing Fee schedule is subject to the same fee schedule as a single Closed-End Fund. These companies are particularly sensitive to the expenses they incur, given that they compete for investment dollars based on return. In addition, Closed-End Funds need to issue shares as a primary means to expand their businesses and raise additional money to invest. As such, Nasdaq believes that allowing a fund family to aggregate the shares outstanding of all Closed-End Funds listed on Nasdaq that are part of the fund family is reasonable and not inequitable or unfairly discriminatory.

Finally, Nasdaq believes that the proposed fees are consistent with the investor protection objectives of Section 6(b)(5) of the Act⁹ in that they are designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to a free and open market and national market system, and in general to protect investors and the public interest. Specifically, the fees are designed, in part, to ensure that there are adequate resources for Nasdaq's listing compliance program, which helps to assure that listing standards are properly enforced and investors are protected.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended. The market for listing services is extremely competitive and listed companies may freely choose alternative venues based on the aggregate fees assessed, and the value provided by each listing. This rule proposal does not burden competition with other listing venues, which are similarly free to set their fees. Moreover, the proposed rule merely conforms fees charged to similarly situated Nasdaq listed Closed-End Funds and fund families. For these reasons, Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition for listings.
