Such partial amendment shall be clearly identified and marked to show deletions and additions.

1. Text of the Proposed Rule Change

(a) The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq” or “Exchange”), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² is filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC” or “Commission”) a proposal to modify certain initial listing liquidity requirements. This Amendment No. 1 supersedes the original filing in its entirety.

A notice of the proposed rule change for publication in the Federal Register is attached as Exhibit 1. The text of the proposed rule change is attached as Exhibit 5.

(b) Not applicable.

(c) Not applicable.

2. Procedures of the Self-Regulatory Organization

The proposed rule change was approved by the Board of Directors of the Exchange on November 20, 2024. No other action is necessary for the filing of the rule change.

3. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

a. Purpose

Nasdaq is filing this amendment to SR-NASDAQ-2024-084,³ which was published for comment by the Commission on December 19, 2024, in order to: (i) provide for a 30-day operative delay after this proposed rule change has been approved by the Commission and (ii) make minor technical changes to improve clarity and readability of this proposal. This amendment supersedes and replaces the Initial Proposal in its entirety.

Nasdaq is proposing to modify Listing Rules 5405 and 5505 to require that a company listing on the Nasdaq Global Market or Nasdaq Capital Market in connection with an initial public offering (“IPO”) satisfy the applicable minimum Market Value of Unrestricted Publicly Held Shares (“MVUPHS”) requirement solely from the proceeds of the offering. Nasdaq is also proposing to make similar changes affecting companies that uplist to Nasdaq from the U.S. over-the-counter market (“OTC market”) in conjunction with a public offering.

Nasdaq Listing Rules require a company to have a minimum Market Value of Unrestricted Publicly Held Shares. For initial listing on the Nasdaq Global Market, a company must have a minimum MVUPHS of $8 million under the Income Standard, $18 million under the Equity Standard, and $20 million under either the Market Value or Total Assets/Total Revenue Standards.⁴ For initial listing on the Nasdaq Capital

⁴ See Listing Rules 5405(b)(1)(C), 5405(b)(2)(C), 5405(b)(3)(B), and 5405(b)(4)(B).

Market, a company must have a minimum MVUPHS of $5 million under the Net Income Standard, and $15 million under either the Equity or Market Value of Listed Securities Standards.⁵

Unrestricted Publicly Held Shares are shares that are not held by an officer, director or 10% shareholder of the company and which are not subject to resale restrictions of any kind.⁶ In the case of a company listing in conjunction with a public offering, previously issued shares registered for resale (“Resale Shares”), and not held by an officer, director or 10% shareholder of the company, are counted as Unrestricted Publicly Held Shares in addition to the shares being sold in an offering.

The MVUPHS standard is one of the core liquidity requirements within the Nasdaq listing rules. Like the other liquidity requirements, it is meant to ensure that there is sufficient liquidity to provide price discovery and support an efficient and orderly market for the company’s securities. Nonetheless, Nasdaq has observed that the securities companies that meet the applicable MVUPHS requirement by including Resale Shares have experienced higher volatility on the date of listing than those of similarly situated companies that meet the requirement with only the proceeds from the offering. Nasdaq believes that the Resale Shares may not contribute to liquidity to the same degree as the shares sold in the public offering. As such, Nasdaq believes it is appropriate to modify the rules to exclude the Resale Shares from the calculation of MVUPHS for initial listing of companies listing in conjunction with a public offering.

⁵ See Listing Rules 5505(b)(1)(B), 5505(b)(2)(C), and 5505(b)(3)(C).

⁶ See Listing Rule 5005(a)(46).

Accordingly, Nasdaq proposes to modify Listing Rules 5405(b) and 5505(b) to provide that a company listing in connection with an initial public offering, including through the issuance of American Depository Receipts, must satisfy the applicable MVUPHS requirement for each initial listing standard for primary equity securities⁷ with the proceeds of that offering.

Related to this change, Nasdaq believes it also is appropriate to apply a similar requirement to companies trading in the OTC market that qualify for listing based on an offering. Specifically, a company trading in the OTC market prior to listing must currently satisfy either a minimum daily trading volume on the OTC market of 2,000 shares over the past 30 trading days with trading occurring in at least 50% of those days (the “ADV Requirement”) or, alternatively, list in connection with a firm commitment underwritten public offering of at least $4 million.⁸ This alternative recognizes that where a company is listing in connection with a significant firm commitment underwritten public offering the liquidity characteristics of its prior trading will change and reflect the offering, just like in an IPO, and shares in the offering will be the primary source of liquidity and price discovery upon listing.

Given Nasdaq’s observations about the liquidity characteristics of IPOs with Resale Shares, Nasdaq believes it is appropriate to treat OTC companies relying on an offering in a similar manner, given that the liquidity in such listings is also expected to be supported by the offering. Accordingly, Nasdaq proposes to modify the alternative to the ADV requirement in Listing Rules 5405(a)(4) and 5505(a)(5). As revised, a company

⁸ See Listing Rules 5405(a) and 5505(a). This requirement is the same under the listing rules of both the Nasdaq Global Market and Nasdaq Capital Market.

relying on the alternative will be required to satisfy the applicable MVUPHS requirements with only the proceeds from the offering. As a result, Nasdaq also proposes to modify Listing Rules 5405(a)(4) and 5505(a)(5) to increase the size of the required public offering for this alternative to the ADV Requirement from $4 million to $5 million for Capital Market applicants and $8 million for Global Market applicants to align with the minimum MVUPHS requirement for each market.⁹ If the company qualifies under a different standard, instead of the income standard, the minimum raise instead would have to satisfy the MVUPHS requirement of the applicable standard. Specifically, for a company listing on the Global Market under the Equity Standard and the Market Value or Total Assets/Total Revenue Standards, the required public offering will be at least $18 million and $20 million, respectively.¹⁰ Similarly, for a company listing on the Capital Market under the Equity Standard and the Market Value of Listed Securities Standard, the required public offering will be at least $15 million.¹¹

Nasdaq will make the proposed rule changes described herein operative 30 days after it has been approved by the Commission. This delayed implementation will allow companies time to adjust to the new rules and will minimize disruption for companies that are close to being listed on Nasdaq.

b. Statutory Basis

⁹ See footnotes 3 and 4, above.

¹⁰ See Listing Rules 5405(b)(2)(C), 5405(b)(3)(B), and 5405(b)(4)(B).

¹¹ See Listing Rules 5505(b)(1)(B) and 5505(b)(2)(C).

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act,¹² in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(5) of the Act,¹³ in particular, in that it is designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general to protect investors and the public interest. Specifically, Nasdaq believes that the proposal to modify Listing Rules 5405(b) and 5505(b) to require that a company listing on the Nasdaq Global Market or Capital Market in connection with an IPO satisfy the applicable minimum MVUPHS requirement solely from the proceeds of the offering is designed to protect investors and the public interest and to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system because Nasdaq believes that the change will likely result in less volatile trading of affected companies upon listing. As described above, the MVUPHS standard is one of the core liquidity requirements within the Nasdaq listing rules designed to ensure that there is sufficient liquidity to provide price discovery and support an efficient and orderly market for the company's securities. Based on Nasdaq's experience, companies that meet the applicable MVUPHS requirement by including Resale Shares are more likely to be subject to volatile trading on the date of listing than similarly situated companies that meet the requirement with only the proceeds from the offering. Nasdaq believes that this proposed change will help ensure that the initial pool of liquidity available for trading meets or exceeds the minimum applicable MVUPHS requirement.

¹³ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(5).

Nasdaq also believes that the proposal to modify Listing Rules 5405(a)(4) and 5505(a)(5) to require that a company that is trading on the OTC market at the time of its application and that is listing in conjunction with a firm commitment public offering in lieu of meeting the ADV Requirement must satisfy the applicable MVUPHS requirements with only the proceeds from the offering is designed to protect investors and the public interest and to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system because, Nasdaq believes it is appropriate to align the minimum offering size for this alternative to the ADV Requirement with the minimum MVUPHS requirement for each market¹⁴ by modifying Listing Rules 5405(a)(4) and 5505(a)(5) to set the minimum offering under this alternative to $5 million on the Capital Market and to $8 million on the Global Market because, in the case where a company does not meet the ADV Requirement, the offering serves as the primary source of price discovery in the same way the offering does in an IPO, as described above. Moreover, failure to align these requirements could allow a company to begin trading on the OTC market and then uplist to Nasdaq a short time later with an offering that does not satisfy the proposed new requirements for companies listed in connection with an IPO, as described above.

4. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. While Nasdaq does not believe there will be any impact on inter-market competition from the proposed change, any impact on competition that does arise will be necessary to better protect investors, in furtherance of a central purpose of the Act. Moreover, each national securities exchange can elect how to structure its listing requirements and respond in a competitive manner. In that regard, Nasdaq notes, for example, that in 2019 Nasdaq first enhanced its initial listing requirements to exclude holders of restricted stock from the calculation of the market value of publicly held shares and imposed a requirement that a minimum number of shareholders hold at least $2,500 worth of unrestricted stock, however New York Stock Exchange and NYSE American have not adopted comparable requirements and compete for listings on such basis.¹⁵

Nasdaq also believes that any impact on intra-market competition from the proposed change affecting companies listing on the Nasdaq Global and Capital Markets in connection with an IPO or uplisting from the OTC market, as described above, will be necessary to better protect investors, in furtherance of a central purpose of the Act. In that regard, companies listing on Nasdaq through other means, such as those listing on the Nasdaq Global Select Market or listing through a Direct Listing for a security that that has not had sustained recent trading in a Private Placement Market prior to listing,¹⁶ are already subject to higher initial listing standards than companies impacted by this proposed change and Nasdaq has not observed similar concerns with the trading of these companies' securities.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
(Release No. _____ ; File No. SR-NASDAQ-2024-084)

February __, 2025

Self-Regulatory Organizations; The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC; Notice of Filing of Proposed Rule Change to Modify Certain Initial Listing Liquidity Requirements

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)¹, and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on February 5, 2025, The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq” or “Exchange”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC” or “Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III, below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to modify certain initial listing liquidity requirements.

This Amendment No. 1 supersedes the original filing in its entirety.

The text of the proposed rule change is available on the Exchange’s Website at <https://listingcenter.nasdaq.com/rulebook/nasdaq/rules>, at the principal office of the Exchange, and at the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Nasdaq is filing this amendment to SR-NASDAQ-2024-084,³ which was published for comment by the Commission on December 19, 2024, in order to: (i) provide for a 30-day operative delay after this proposed rule change has been approved by the Commission and (ii) make minor technical changes to improve clarity and readability of this proposal. This amendment supersedes and replaces the Initial Proposal in its entirety.

Nasdaq is proposing to modify Listing Rules 5405 and 5505 to require that a company listing on the Nasdaq Global Market or Nasdaq Capital Market in connection with an initial public offering (“IPO”) satisfy the applicable minimum Market Value of Unrestricted Publicly Held Shares (“MVUPHS”) requirement solely from the proceeds of the offering. Nasdaq is also proposing to make similar changes affecting companies that uplist to Nasdaq from the U.S. over-the-counter market (“OTC market”) in conjunction with a public offering.

³ Securities Exchange Act Release No. 101978 (December 19, 2024), 89 FR 106717 (December 30, 2024) (the “Initial Proposal”).

Nasdaq Listing Rules require a company to have a minimum Market Value of Unrestricted Publicly Held Shares. For initial listing on the Nasdaq Global Market, a company must have a minimum MVUPHS of $8 million under the Income Standard, $18 million under the Equity Standard, and $20 million under either the Market Value or Total Assets/Total Revenue Standards.⁴ For initial listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market, a company must have a minimum MVUPHS of $5 million under the Net Income Standard, and $15 million under either the Equity or Market Value of Listed Securities Standards.⁵

Unrestricted Publicly Held Shares are shares that are not held by an officer, director or 10% shareholder of the company and which are not subject to resale restrictions of any kind.⁶ In the case of a company listing in conjunction with a public offering, previously issued shares registered for resale (“Resale Shares”), and not held by an officer, director or 10% shareholder of the company, are counted as Unrestricted Publicly Held Shares in addition to the shares being sold in the offering.

The MVUHPS standard is one of the core liquidity requirements within the Nasdaq listing rules. Like the other liquidity requirements, it is meant to ensure that there is sufficient liquidity to provide price discovery and support an efficient and orderly market for the company’s securities. Nonetheless, Nasdaq has observed that the securities companies that meet the applicable MVUPHS requirement by including Resale Shares have experienced higher volatility on the date of listing than those of similarly situated companies that meet the requirement with only the proceeds from the offering.

⁴ See Listing Rules 5405(b)(1)(C), 5405(b)(2)(C), 5405(b)(3)(B), and 5405(b)(4)(B).

⁵ See Listing Rules 5505(b)(1)(B), 5505(b)(2)(C), and 5505(b)(3)(C).

⁶ See Listing Rule 5005(a)(46).

Nasdaq believes that the Resale Shares may not contribute to liquidity to the same degree as the shares sold in the public offering. As such, Nasdaq believes it is appropriate to modify the rules to exclude the Resale Shares from the calculation of MVUPHS for initial listing of companies listing in conjunction with a public offering.

Accordingly, Nasdaq proposes to modify Listing Rules 5405(b) and 5505(b) to provide that a company listing in connection with an initial public offering, including through the issuance of American Depository Receipts, must satisfy the applicable MVUPHS requirement for each initial listing standard for primary equity securities⁷ with the proceeds of that offering.

Related to this change, Nasdaq believes it also is appropriate to apply a similar requirement to companies trading in the OTC market that qualify for listing based on an offering. Specifically, a company trading in the OTC market prior to listing must currently satisfy either a minimum daily trading volume on the OTC market of 2,000 shares over the past 30 trading days with trading occurring in at least 50% of those days (the “ADV Requirement”) or, alternatively, list in connection with a firm commitment underwritten public offering of at least $4 million.⁸ This alternative recognizes that where a company is listing in connection with a significant firm commitment underwritten public offering the liquidity characteristics of the prior trading will change and reflect the offering, just like in an IPO, and shares in the offering will be the primary source of liquidity and price discovery upon listing.

⁸ See Listing Rules 5405(a) and 5505(a). This requirement is the same under the listing rules of both the Nasdaq Global Market and Nasdaq Capital Market.

Given Nasdaq's observations about the liquidity characteristics of IPOs with Resale Shares, Nasdaq believes it is appropriate to treat OTC companies relying on an offering in a similar manner, given that the liquidity in such listings is also expected to be supported by the offering. Accordingly, Nasdaq proposes to modify the alternative to the ADV requirement in Listing Rules 5405(a)(4) and 5505(a)(5). As revised, a company relying on the alternative will be required to satisfy the applicable MVUPHS requirements with only the proceeds from the offering. As a result, Nasdaq also proposes to modify Listing Rules 5405(a)(4) and 5505(a)(5) to increase the size of the required public offering for this alternative to the ADV Requirement from $4 million to $5 million for Capital Market applicants and $8 million for Global Market applicants to align with the minimum MVUHPS requirement for each market.⁹ If the company qualifies under a different standard, instead of the income standard, the minimum raise instead would have to satisfy the MVUPHS requirement of the applicable standard. Specifically, for a company listing on the Global Market under the Equity Standard and the Market Value or Total Assets/Total Revenue Standards, the required public offering will be at least $18 million and $20 million, respectively.¹⁰ Similarly, for a company listing on the Capital Market under the Equity Standard and the Market Value of Listed Securities Standard, the required public offering will be at least $15 million.¹¹

Nasdaq will make the proposed rule changes described herein operative 30 days after it has been approved by the Commission. This delayed implementation will allow companies time to adjust to the new rules and will minimize disruption for companies that are close to being listed on Nasdaq.

⁹ See footnotes 3 and 4, above.

¹⁰ See Listing Rules 5405(b)(2)(C), 5405(b)(3)(B), and 5405(b)(4)(B).

¹¹ See Listing Rules 5505(b)(1)(B) and 5505(b)(2)(C).

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act,¹² in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(5) of the Act,¹³ in particular, in that it is designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general to protect investors and the public interest. Specifically, Nasdaq believes that the proposal to modify Listing Rules 5405(b) and 5505(b) to require that a company listing on the Nasdaq Global Market or Capital Market in connection with an IPO satisfy the applicable minimum MVUPHS requirement solely from the proceeds of the offering is designed to protect investors and the public interest and to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system because Nasdaq believes that the change will likely result in less volatile trading of affected companies upon listing. As described above, the MVUHPS standard is one of the core liquidity requirements within the Nasdaq listing rules designed to ensure that there is sufficient liquidity to provide price discovery and support an efficient and orderly market for the company's securities. Based on Nasdaq's experience, companies that meet the applicable MVUPHS requirement by including Resale Shares are more likely to be subject to volatile trading on the date of listing than similarly situated companies that meet the requirement with only the proceeds from the offering. Nasdaq believes that this proposed change will help ensure that the initial pool of liquidity available for trading meets or exceeds the minimum applicable MVUHPS requirement.

¹² 15 U.S.C. 78f(b).

¹³ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(5).

Nasdaq also believes that the proposal to modify Listing Rules 5405(a)(4) and 5505(a)(5) to require that a company that is trading on the OTC market at the time of its application and that is listing in conjunction with a firm commitment public offering in lieu of meeting the ADV Requirement must satisfy the applicable MVUPHS requirements with only the proceeds from the offering is designed to protect investors and the public interest and to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system because, Nasdaq believes it is appropriate to align the minimum offering size for this alternative to the ADV Requirement with the minimum MVUHPS requirement for each market¹⁴ by modifying Listing Rules 5405(a)(4) and 5505(a)(5) to set the minimum offering under this alternative to $5 million on the Capital Market and to $8 million on the Global Market because, in the case where a company does not meet the ADV Requirement, the offering serves as the primary source of price discovery in the same way the offering does in an IPO, as described above. Moreover, failure to align these requirements could allow a company to begin trading on the OTC market and then uplist to Nasdaq a short time later with an offering that does not satisfy the proposed new requirements for companies listed in connection with an IPO, as described above.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the

Act. While Nasdaq does not believe there will be any impact on inter-market competition from the proposed change, any impact on competition that does arise will be necessary to better protect investors, in furtherance of a central purpose of the Act. Moreover, each national securities exchange can elect how to structure its listing requirements and respond in a competitive manner. In that regard, Nasdaq notes, for example, that in 2019 Nasdaq first enhanced its initial listing requirements to exclude holders of restricted stock from the calculation of the market value of publicly held shares and to impose a requirement that a minimum number of shareholders hold at least $2,500 worth of unrestricted stock, however New York Stock Exchange and NYSE American have not adopted comparable requirements and compete for listings on such basis.¹⁵

Nasdaq also believes that any impact on intra-market competition from the proposed change affecting companies listing on the Nasdaq Global and Capital Markets in connection with an IPO or uplisting from the OTC market, as described above, will be necessary to better protect investors, in furtherance of a central purpose of the Act. In that regard, companies listing on Nasdaq through other means, such as those listing on the Nasdaq Global Select Market or listing through a Direct Listing for a security that has not had sustained recent trading in a Private Placement Market prior to listing,¹⁶ are already subject to higher initial listing standards than companies impacted by this proposed change and Nasdaq has not observed similar concerns with the trading of these companies' securities.

¹⁶ Private Placement Market is a trading system for unregistered securities operated by a national securities exchange or a registered broker-dealer. See Listing Rule 5005(a)(34).

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Within 45 days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the Exchange consents, the Commission shall: (a) by order approve or disapprove such proposed rule change, or (b) institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:
