Such partial amendment shall be clearly identified and marked to show deletions and additions.

1. Text of the Proposed Rule Change

(a) Nasdaq PHLX LLC (“Phlx” or “Exchange”), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² is filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC” or “Commission”) a proposal to amend Exchange Rule 1101A, Terms of Option Contracts. The Exchange requests that the Commission waive both the 5-day pre-notification and the 30-day operative delay period contained in Exchange Act Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii).³

A notice of the proposed rule change for publication in the Federal Register is attached as Exhibit 1. The text of the proposed rule change is attached as Exhibit 5.

(b) Not applicable.

(c) Not applicable.

2. Procedures of the Self-Regulatory Organization

The proposed rule change was approved by senior management of the Exchange pursuant to authority delegated by the Board of Directors of the Exchange (the “Board”) on September 19, 2017. Exchange staff will advise the Board of any action taken pursuant to delegated authority. No other action is necessary for the filing of the rule change.

3. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

a. Purpose

The purpose of the proposed rule change is to adopt new Commentary .06 to Exchange Rules 1101A, to codify that the Exchange will defer to The Options Clearing Corporation ("OCC") in determining settlement prices for index options when OCC elects to do so in accordance with its own rules and bylaws. Such OCC-determined settlement prices may be determined in a manner that differs from the settlement price procedures under the Exchange's own rules.

Exchange Rule 1101A(d) currently states that the Rules of the Options Clearing Corporation specify that, unless the Rules of the Exchange provide otherwise, the current index value used to settle the exercise of an index options contract shall be the closing index value for the day on which the index options contract is exercised in accordance with the Rules of the Options Clearing Corporation or, if such day is not a business day, for the most recent business day. Exchange Rule 1101A(e) currently states that the current index value at the expiration of an A.M.-settled index option shall be determined, for all purposes under Exchange rules and OCC rules, on the last day of trading in the underlying securities prior to expiration, by reference to the reported level of such index as derived from first reported sale (opening) prices of the underlying securities on such day, except that in the event that the primary market for an underlying security is open for trading on that day, but that particular security does not open for trading on that day, the price of that security, for the purposes of calculating the current index value at expiration, shall be the last reported sale price of the security.

The Exchange proposes to add new Commentary .06 to Rule 1101A to make clear that the Exchange's settlement price procedures shall not be used if the current index value at expiration is fixed in accordance with OCC rules and by-laws. This language recognizes that OCC is authorized under its rules and by-laws to take certain actions relating to settlement in the event of the unavailability or inaccuracy of the current underlying interest value.⁴ An option holder's contract with OCC is governed by OCC rules and by-laws. The proposed language makes clear that Exchange rules concerning settlement value calculation would not apply in the event that OCC exercises its authority to determine settlement prices under OCC rules and by-laws. In that case, the Exchange would defer to OCC.

Proposed Rule 1101A Commentary .06 is based in part upon Chapter XIV, Section 10(g) of the Nasdaq rulebook, Chapter XIV, Section 10(g) of the BX rulebook, and ISE Rule 2008(g).⁵

b. Statutory Basis

⁴ See OCC By-Laws Article XVII, Section 4(a), which provides in relevant part that if OCC shall determine that the primary market for one or more index components did not open or remain open for trading (or that any such components did not open or remain open for trading on such market(s)) on a trading day at or before the time when the current index value for that trading day would ordinarily be determined, or that a current index value or other value or price to be used as, or to determine, the exercise settlement amount (a "required value") for a trading day is otherwise unreported, inaccurate, unreliable, unavailable or inappropriate for purposes of calculating the exercise settlement amount, then, in addition to any other actions that OCC may be entitled to take under OCC's bylaws and rules, the OCC is empowered to take any or all of a range of permitted actions with respect to any series of options on such index, including fixing the exercise settlement amount.

⁵ These rules generally provide that the exchanges' settlement price rules will not apply when the settlement price is determined in accordance with OCC rules and bylaws.

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act,⁶ in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(5) of the Act,⁷ in particular, in that it is designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general to protect investors and the public interest.

OCC may elect to use various procedures in the event it exercises its authority to set settlement prices.⁸ By adopting the proposed rule, the Exchange would acknowledge clearly that OCC may, under its rules and by-laws, establish settlement prices for expiring index options that may differ from the settlement prices that would otherwise be provided for in Exchange rules, thereby protecting investors and the public interest by reducing potential for confusion in that regard.

4. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. On the contrary, the Exchange believes that the proposed amendment will benefit investors, market participants, and the marketplace in general by stating that the

⁷ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(5).

⁸ OCC By-Laws Article XVII, Section 4(a)(2) provides in relevant part that if OCC elects to exercise its authority under Section 4(a), it may, among other actions, fix the exercise settlement amount using the reported price or value for the relevant security(ies), at the close of regular trading hours on the last preceding trading day for which such a price or value was reported by the reporting authority. Section 4(a)(2) provides that OCC may elect instead to fix the exercise settlement amount using other prices, such as the reported price or value for the relevant security(ies) at the opening of regular trading hours on the next trading day for which such an opening price or value is reported by the reporting authority.

Exchange will defer to OCC in the determination of settlement prices when and if OCC exercises its authority under its own settlement price procedures in accordance with its rules and by-laws.

5. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

6. Extension of Time Period for Commission Action

Not Applicable.

7. Basis for Summary Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(3) or for Accelerated Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(iii)⁹ of the Act and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder¹⁰ in that it effects a change that: (i) does not significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) does not impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) by its terms, does not become operative for 30 days after the date of the filing, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate if consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The proposed rule change does not significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest, nor does not impose any significant burden on competition. Rather, it eliminates potential confusion on the part of the investing public regarding determination of settlement prices for index options by making it explicit that when OCC exercises its authority to set settlement prices in accordance with its own rules and by-laws regarding settlement, the Exchange's rules regarding determination of settlement prices will not apply. This deference to OCC's authority regarding establishment of settlement prices is consistent with the index option rules of other exchanges which also defer to OCC.¹¹ The Exchange is requesting that the Commission waive both the 5-day pre-notification and 30-day pre-operative periods set forth in Rule 19b-4(f)(6).

⁹ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A)(iii).

¹⁰ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6).

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is: (i) necessary or appropriate in the public interest; (ii) for the protection of investors; or (iii) otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.

A proposed rule change filed under Rule 19b-4(f)(6) normally does not become operative prior to 30 days after the date of filing. Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii), however, permits the Commission to designate a shorter time if such action is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The Exchange requests that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay period for "non-controversial" proposals contained in Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii) and make the proposed rule change effective and operative upon filing. Such a waiver will permit the Exchange to immediately amend Rule 1101A, thereby eliminating any potential confusion on the part of the investing public regarding determination of settlement prices for index options in instances where OCC exercises its authority under its own rules and by-laws regarding settlement. With the proliferation of expiration dates that has resulted from new index option weekly listings, there is an increased possibility that unforeseen events will occur on an expiration date, necessitating OCC's determination of settlement prices. By waiving the 30 day operative delay, the proposed rule change will immediately eliminate any perceived conflict between the Exchange's settlement price rules and OCC's rules and by-laws regarding establishment of settlement prices. The added clarity should benefit all users of the Exchange's index option market.

8. Proposed Rule Change Based on Rules of Another Self-Regulatory Organization or of the Commission

As discussed above, proposed Rule 1101A Commentary .06 is based upon Chapter XIV, Section 10(g) of the Nasdaq rulebook, Chapter XIV, Section 10(g) of the BX rulebook, and ISE Rule 2008(g).

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
(Release No. _____ ; File No. SR-Phlx-2018-47)

June __, 2018

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Nasdaq PHLX LLC; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change to Amend Exchange Rule 1101A, Terms of Option Contracts

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on June 11, 2018, Nasdaq PHLX LLC (“Phlx” or “Exchange”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC” or “Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III, below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to amend Exchange Rule 1101A, Terms of Option Contracts.

The text of the proposed rule change is available on the Exchange’s Website at <http://nasdaqphlx.cchwallstreet.com/>, at the principal office of the Exchange, and at the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The purpose of the proposed rule change is to adopt new Commentary .06 to Exchange Rules 1101A, to codify that the Exchange will defer to The Options Clearing Corporation ("OCC") in determining settlement prices for index options when OCC elects to do so in accordance with its own rules and bylaws. Such OCC-determined settlement prices may be determined in a manner that differs from the settlement price procedures under the Exchange's own rules.

Exchange Rule 1101A(d) currently states that the Rules of the Options Clearing Corporation specify that, unless the Rules of the Exchange provide otherwise, the current index value used to settle the exercise of an index options contract shall be the closing index value for the day on which the index options contract is exercised in accordance with the Rules of the Options Clearing Corporation or, if such day is not a business day, for the most recent business day. Exchange Rule 1101A(e) currently states that the current index value at the expiration of an A.M.-settled index option shall be determined, for all purposes under Exchange rules and OCC rules, on the last day of trading in the underlying securities prior to expiration, by reference to the reported level of such index as derived from first reported sale (opening) prices of the underlying securities on such day, except that in the event that the primary market for an underlying security is open for trading on that day, but that particular security does not open for trading on that day, the price of that security, for the purposes of calculating the current index value at expiration, shall be the last reported sale price of the security.

The Exchange proposes to add new Commentary .06 to Rule 1101A to make clear that the Exchange's settlement price procedures shall not be used if the current index value at expiration is fixed in accordance with OCC rules and by-laws. This language recognizes that OCC is authorized under its rules and by-laws to take certain actions relating to settlement in the event of the unavailability or inaccuracy of the current underlying interest value.³ An option holder's contract with OCC is governed by OCC rules and by-laws. The proposed language makes clear that Exchange rules concerning settlement value calculation would not apply in the event that OCC exercises its authority to determine settlement prices under OCC rules and by-laws. In that case, the Exchange would defer to OCC.

³ See OCC By-Laws Article XVII, Section 4(a), which provides in relevant part that if OCC shall determine that the primary market for one or more index components did not open or remain open for trading (or that any such components did not open or remain open for trading on such market(s)) on a trading day at or before the time when the current index value for that trading day would ordinarily be determined, or that a current index value or other value or price to be used as, or to determine, the exercise settlement amount (a "required value") for a trading day is otherwise unreported, inaccurate, unreliable, unavailable or inappropriate for purposes of calculating the exercise settlement amount, then, in addition to any other actions that OCC may be entitled to take under OCC's bylaws and rules, the OCC is empowered to take any or all of a range of permitted actions with respect to any series of options on such index, including fixing the exercise settlement amount.

Proposed Rule 1101A Commentary .06 is based in part upon Chapter XIV, Section 10(g) of the Nasdaq rulebook, Chapter XIV, Section 10(g) of the BX rulebook, and ISE Rule 2008(g).⁴

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act,⁵ in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(5) of the Act,⁶ in particular, in that it is designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general to protect investors and the public interest.

OCC may elect to use various procedures in the event it exercises its authority to set settlement prices.⁷ By adopting the proposed rule, the Exchange would acknowledge clearly that OCC may, under its rules and by-laws, establish settlement prices for expiring index options that may differ from the settlement prices that would otherwise be

⁴ These rules generally provide that the exchanges' settlement price rules will not apply when the settlement price is determined in accordance with OCC rules and bylaws.

⁵ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b).

⁶ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(5).

⁷ OCC By-Laws Article XVII, Section 4(a)(2) provides in relevant part that if OCC elects to exercise its authority under Section 4(a), it may, among other actions, fix the exercise settlement amount using the reported price or value for the relevant security(ies), at the close of regular trading hours on the last preceding trading day for which such a price or value was reported by the reporting authority. Section 4(a)(2) provides that OCC may elect instead to fix the exercise settlement amount using other prices, such as the reported price or value for the relevant security(ies) at the opening of regular trading hours on the next trading day for which such an opening price or value is reported by the reporting authority.

provided for in Exchange rules, thereby protecting investors and the public interest by reducing potential for confusion in that regard.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. On the contrary, the Exchange believes that the proposed amendment will benefit investors, market participants, and the marketplace in general by stating that the Exchange will defer to OCC in the determination of settlement prices when and if OCC exercises its authority under its own settlement price procedures in accordance with its rules and by-laws.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(iii) of the Act⁸ and subparagraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.⁹

⁸ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A)(iii).

⁹ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6). In addition, Rule 19b-4(f)(6) requires a self-regulatory organization to give the Commission written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. The Exchange has satisfied this requirement.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is: (i) necessary or appropriate in the public interest; (ii) for the protection of investors; or (iii) otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic comments:

- Use the Commission's Internet comment form (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or
- Send an e-mail to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include File Number SR-Phlx-2018-47 on the subject line.

Paper comments:

- Send paper comments in triplicate to Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549-1090.

All submissions should refer to File Number SR-Phlx-2018-47. This file number should be included on the subject line if e-mail is used. To help the Commission process and review your comments more efficiently, please use only one method. The Commission will post all comments on the Commission's Internet Web site (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>).

Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for website viewing and printing in the Commission's Public Reference Room, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549, on official business days between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Copies of the filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the Exchange. All comments received will be posted without change; the Commission does not edit personal identifying information from submissions. You should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly.

All submissions should refer to File Number SR-Phlx-2018-47 and should be submitted on or before [insert date 21 days from publication in the Federal Register].
